Mr. Guest is a trial lawyer who has obtained numerous defense verdicts in high-exposure, high-profile cases. His practice is focused on representing product manufacturers and transportation companies in catastrophic injury, wrongful death, and tort matters. Mr. Guest's trial experience brings an understanding of how to defend tough cases with a focus on juror expectations and attitudes. Clients appreciate the counsel Mr. Guest provides in strategic recommendations to shape case management and litigation strategy, including developing jury exercises and designing best practices.

Prior to joining Yukevich | Cavanaugh, Mr. Guest practiced at an international law firm and was an Assistant Attorney General for the District of Columbia.
