Raymond H. Hua is an experienced civil litigator and trial attorney whose practice focuses on products liability defense, high exposure defense litigation, and business litigation.

Mr. Hua has successfully represented Fortune 500 companies in catastrophic injuries and multi-million dollar litigation. He regularly defends automobile manufacturers, automobile components manufacturers, medical device manufacturers, municipalities, water companies, transportation companies, school districts, general contractors, hotels, recreational resorts, medical / healthcare facilities, and numerous other businesses and individuals. Mr. Hua has achieved excellent results for clients in all avenues of civil litigation, including both federal and state courts, and at all stages of litigation from pre-litigation resolution to trial.

Mr. Hua's representative experience includes:

- » First and second chair trial counsel for cases involving products liability, premises liability, general negligence, and breach of contract
- » Monitoring counsel for excess carriers
- » Local counsel for law firms and clients based out of state
- » Federal MDL and California Judicial Council Coordinated Proceeding ("JCCP") counsel for the defense of automobile components and medical device manufacturers

Mr. Hua's successes include:

- » Obtaining defense verdicts at trial
- » Obtaining favorable verdicts and settlements through litigation and trial
- » Obtaining dismissal of cases due to plaintiffs' discovery violations
- » Obtaining dismissals for lack of personal jurisdiction
- » Securing summary judgment on behalf of his clients
- » Successfully argued before California Court of Appeal

In 1999 Mr. Hua graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and a specialization in Business Administration. He was awarded multiple scholarships to attend UCLA School of Law, where he earned his Juris Doctor in 2002. While in law school, Mr. Hua was an editor and business manager of The Asian Pacific American Law Journal, was an extern for the Honorable Larry Rubin of the Santa Monica Superior Court, a law clerk for the Federal Commodity Futures Trading Commission, and a law clerk for the general counsel's office of an international corporation based in Southern California.

Prior to joining Yukevich | Cavanaugh in March 2006, Mr. Hua's practice focused on aviation litigation defense and business litigation.

Honors and Recognition

Mr. Hua has been honored as one of America's Top 100 Civil Defense Litigators, Southern California, an invitation-only recognition reserved for the most exceptional Civil Defense Litigators. Only the top 100 qualifying defense litigators in each state will receive this honor.
