

COVID-19 Impacts to the California Court System

Court systems around the country have been impacted by the global COVID-19 pandemic. At Yukevich | Cavanaugh, we continue to provide the exceptional legal expertise and personal level of client servicing you've come to expect from our Firm.

Our goal is to provide timely updates on the state of the California court system. To ensure you have the most up to date information, we encourage you sign up for our email alerts, and to regularly check this page.

If you have any questions, please reach out to James Yukevich directly.

Above all, it is our hope that you and your loved ones are safe and sound. We care about your health, and the health of your family and community. This is a difficult time for everyone, and whatever lies ahead, we'll get through it together.
