Christopher Im is an associate in the Los Angeles Office.

Prior to joining Yukevich | Cavanaugh, Christopher worked for a litigation firm in Los Angeles where he managed a large number of cases throughout all stages of the litigation process. Christopher has had experience working closely with a multibillion dollar automotive company and has honed his ability to produce quality work at the highest standard while keeping his clients' needs in mind.

Christopher attended Chapman University where he was voted by his peers to serve as the President of the Student Government Association. He then went on to receive his law degree from Loyola Law School. In law school, Christopher was once again voted by his peers to serve as the President of the Student Bar Association for two consecutive terms.

Outside of his legal practice, Christopher's interests include Volleyball, Volunteering, and watching the Dodgers.

He is conversational in Korean.
