

New Equity Shareholders

Yukevich | Cavanaugh is pleased to announce that partners Thomas Borncamp, Steven D. Smelser, and Cristina M. Ciminelli have become equity shareholders.

Thomas Borncamp

Mr. Borncamp has been with the firm since 2000. He has been lead trial counsel in numerous cases. He has tried cases involving motorcycle, automobile, bus, commercial truck, bicycle and airplane accidents.

Mr. Borncamp has successfully defended vehicle, tire, sporting goods, safety equipment, fire protection, respiratory protection and other product manufacturers, as well as Fortune 500 Companies in high-exposure, complex lawsuits and class actions across the United States.

Cristina M. Ciminelli

Ms. Ciminelli has been with the firm since 2002. She is an experienced civil litigator whose practice focuses on the defense of product liability and general negligence actions.

A veteran of over 18 major trials, she has defended Fortune 500 companies in catastrophic injury and business dispute cases throughout the United States.

Steven D. Smelser

Mr. Smelser has been with the firm since 2000. He is a civil litigator and trial attorney with expertise in product liability, toxic tort, negligence and business litigation throughout the nation.

Mr. Smelser has successfully defended the interests of some of the largest corporations in the world in virtually all aspects of litigation.

“Shareholders are expected to be outstanding lawyers and firm leaders. These qualities are exemplified by these three attorneys.

Each has made significant contributions to our firm and our clients. Our firm has never been stronger...”
